

LP Volume I

LP Volume I is a collection of poetry about love, life and spirituality (Features some of the authors favorite poems by category). With regard to love, you can see the transition of the authors perspective on finding the right woman, marrying the right woman, and maintaining chemistry with his marriage partner. With regard to maintaining marital sexual chemistry, there are a couple of poems that talk about sexuality. While the poems are not explicit with regard to curse words and similar language, they are intended to provoke thought regarding the societal conundrum of whether one can find their marriage partner to be sexually stimulating after five, ten, fifteen, twenty+ years. Thus, the poetical intent behind the poems is not to be nasty or vulgar, but to elicit conversation regarding how sexy, life-long intimacy with ones partner can be. With regard to life and spirituality, these poems represent a snippet of the authors work. LP Volume II, to be released in 2014, features more detailed poetical conversations about life and God.
